BY WAY OF INTRODUCTION

There are three contestants for the republican nomination for county commissioner in the Second district, E. H. Springer, the present incumbent, Geo. Schrecongost of Well precinct, and D. W. Macomber of Hall precinct.

Mr. Springer has served several years as a commissioner, having been elected for a full term and appointed to fill an unexpired term. It is generally conceded that Mr. Springer has made a good record as a commissioner. He is conservative, has made a close study of the conditions of the county and therefore acts intelligently. It is his aim and desire to act for the best interests of the greatest number, and in his decisions as between two contending parties in road and other matters, he gives his reasons for his vote and his reasoning is not often wrong. Claims against the county are scanned closely and no "job" is allowed to pass Mr. Springer.

George Schrecongost is one of the old-timers in the south part of the county, having lived in Well precinct for over a quarter of a century. During this time we have been intimately acquainted with Mr. Schrecongost, and know him to be a level-headed farmer whose integrity is unquestioned by every acquaintance, and who is qualified to acceptably fill the commission-ership. He is well known in the south part of his district, and will no doubt poll a heavy vote.

Residents of the northwest part of the second district are of the opinion that they are entitled to the commission-ership, and hence prevailed upon D. W. Macomber to become a candidate and he consented. Mr. Macomber has been a resident of the county for over thirty years, has proven himself a man of good business ability, is a hustler every day in the year, honest and worthy the confidence of all. He takes an active interest in county affairs and would prove a competent and painstaking commissioner.

The democratic candidate for commissioner in the second district is John D. Kellher, of Maxwell, one of the oldest and best known residents of that section. The duties of the commission-ership would not be new to Mr. Kellher, for he represented that district for one term several years ago. His service during that term was for the best interests of the people as he saw it, and his acts were not often criticized. Mr. Kellher is a man who enjoys the confidence of not only the people of his home precinct but of the acquaintances he has throughout the county.

Roy Cochran, the present county surveyor, seeks the democratic nomination, while Paul G. Meyer asks for the republican nomination, and as neither have opposition, they will be the respective candidates at the November election. Mr. Cochran is filling the office in a seemingly acceptable manner, at least one hears of no complaints of inefficiency. In addition to his competency, he is a very agreeable young man to meet and makes friends.

Mr. Meyer has been located in Lincoln county for twenty or more years and has filled the office of county surveyor for a couple of terms, and is well known as a civil engineer. His work has called him into every precinct of the county and he is so well known that he needs no introduction at our hands.

Infraction proceedings instituted by the district court by D. S. White, details of which are given elsewhere, ends the contest for commissioner in the Third district. If the injunction granted Mr. White will hold off until January 1st, 1917.

Death of the President's Wife

A bulletin received in town at two o'clock yesterday apprised our people of the death of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the nation's chief executive. To the bereaved president the sympathy of all the people is extended.

One day last March Mrs. Wilson slipped on a rug at the White house, injuring her spine. An operation was necessary. After weeks of convalescence she finally arose from her bed, but the burden of a winter's activity at the white house, together with charity work in the slums of the city, brought on nervous prostration. She was well enough to attend the wedding of her second daughter, now Mrs. William G. McAdoo, but her recuperative powers were not lasting.

Stomach trouble added to her nervous ailment and Bright's disease developed. For several days past her condition had been critical, and the president was constantly at her bedside.

51-4 FOYER & BUCHANAN.

State Senator Hoagland, candidate for the republican nomination for lieutenant governor, is receiving many letters from all sections of the state which speak of the favorable manner in which his candidacy is being received. In the western part of the state he will be very strongly supported on account of being a western man and his work in the senate in behalf of western Nebraska interests.

Wheat in Deuel county is proving a bumper crop. One farmer threshed 910 bushels from twenty acres and another farmer 2100 bushels from fifty acres.

H. C. Booker, for sixteen years postmaster at Gothenburg, retired this week. He is succeeded by J. H. O'Kane.

E. F. Snaveley, Democratic Candidate for Lieutenant Governor; Primaries August 18th, 1914.

E. F. Snaveley is a native of old Virginia, but has resided in Nebraska for the last sixteen years. He was educated at the Peru Normal School and the state university, and taught for three years in the public schools of Nebraska.

He is a graduate of the University of Nebraska Law School, and practiced law in Lincoln for three years.

In later years he has been engaged in business in Lincoln with a constantly widening circle of friends and business associates.

He is prominent in Lancaster county politics, having been a candidate for the Nebraska state legislature, receiving a very heavy vote in a pronouncedly republican district. He is now president of the Lincoln Bryan club and president of the democratic lunch club.

THOMAS L. HALL

Republican Candidate for Second Term on the Railway Commission

In November, 1911, I was elected a member of the Nebraska State Railway Commission to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Cowgill. I am now a candidate for a full term. As the pressure of official duties is so great that it will be impossible for me to make a personal campaign, I am taking this method of calling attention to my candidacy.

I was born and reared on a farm in Richardson county, Nebraska, and have lived 43 years in the state; my father died when I was about 16 years old and from that time until I entered the University of Nebraska, I was in charge of the farm. I graduated from the University in 1896 and immediately entered the employ of the Lancaster County Bank of Lincoln. I was afterwards made assistant cashier of the First National Bank of Auburn and president of the Verdon State Bank, which position I held for five years. Meanwhile I read law and graduated from the law department of the University in 1906. I practiced law in Falls City seven years, purchased the home farm at Verdon and have been a successful farmer and stock grower. From 1909, until I became a member of the Commission, I was engaged in the practice of law in Lincoln.

For the past three years I have given my full time and best efforts to my official duties. I have been a tireless worker, serving the people of the state, as I believe, with fidelity. I have had the courage to challenge privilege by demanding that stocks, bonds, notes and other evidences of indebtedness of public service corporations should be limited to the approximate value of the properties upon which such securities are issued, thereby preventing over-capitalization, or so-called stock watering, knowing that it is impossible for the Commission to make just rates that the people must pay to public service corporations unless the financing of such corporations are reduced to an honest basis.

I believe that my education, training, general experience, and experience in office make me particularly fitted for re-election.

It is hard for you to make an investigation of my services, but if you believe that I have been an honest and efficient officer I ask your honest support.

Yours very truly,
THOMAS L. HALL.
